WINNES JURY IS DEADLOCKED

One Holding Out For Conviction—Judge Sends Body Word "To Keep at It"

(By Associated Press)
Harlan, Ky., Feb. 2.—With one grim old mountaineer holding out for conviction, the jury in the Winnes case resumed deliberation today at 9 o'clock.

Winnes is apparently unmoved under the strain of waiting.

Just before noon the jurors asked the deputy sheriff guarding them to report to the judge that they were hopelessly deadlocked. The court sent back the word "tell them to keep at it."

HARDING FAVORS VOLUNTARY SERVICE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 2.—President-elect Harding favors enactment of legislation providing for voluntary training of 150,000 men annually, Chairman Kahn, of the house military committee, announced today on the floor of the house, launching a fight to prevent the reduction of the regular army below 175,000.

Kahn asserted that it is not advisable to reduce the army to 150,000 now. He declared, "The United States hasn't a friend among the nations of the earth. Serious problems confront the American people and it would be a mistake to authorize army reductions until conditions become more stable."

ANOTHER BOOZE RULING BY ATTORNEY GENERAL

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 2.—The authority of the government to issue permits for withdrawal of liquor from bonded warehouses is limited to manufacturers and wholesale druggists, Attorney General Palmer ruled in an opinion made public today by the commissioner of internal revenue. He also ruled issuance of permits for disposition of the liquor by wholesale is also limited to manufacturers and wholesale druggists.

Commissioner Williams said while Palmer's opinion eliminated the wholesale liquor dealer from the right to the permit, it is not the intention of the bureau to interfere with the disposition of their present stock.

DEMPSEY-WILLARD SCRAP IS POSTPONED

(By Associated Press)
Los Angeles, Feb. 2.—Jack Dempsey today announced the receipt of a telegram from his New York manager saying that the 15-round bout with Jess Willard, former champion, on March 17, in New York, had been indefinitely postponed. He had no details, but it is understood to be because of the boxing commission ruling limiting the price of admission to $15.

Newberry Still Big Winner

Washington, Feb. 2.—Recount of ballots in Michigan senatorial election of 1918, finished today by the senate elections committee, left Senator Newberry, Republican, with a plurality of 4,330 over Henry Ford. Ford made net gain of 3,233, but Newberry's original plurality was 7,561. Most of Ford's gains resulted from technical irregularities.

THIS FELLOW SAYS ONLY CURTAIL CROP

State College Expert Says That Method is Preferred to Cut-Out to Raise Prices

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Feb. 2.—That of the two ways of reducing the surplus of tobacco now in the country, thereby bringing the price to a higher level, curtailment of the crop over a period of years was to be preferred to a "cutout," was the statement of C. B. Williams, of the farm management department of the State College of Agriculture, here today in addressing farmers gathered for the annual "Farm and Home" convention. He talked on the "Problems of Farmers' Prices."

Curtailment, Mr. Williams told the farmers, would have the same effect as a cutout and would avoid many of the disadvantages.

Tobacco prices and a remedy for the situation occupied the major portion of Mr. Williams' address. He declared that on the assumption that normal prices would settle somewhere midway between pre-war and war prices, corn is now 13 cents too low, hogs three cents, beef two cents, good tobacco five cents too low and wheat is 35 cents too high.

In speaking of tobacco, Mr. Williams said: "The pre-war price for burley averaged 14.1 cents per pound or 16.5 cents for the better grades. I expect it to bring around 21 cents average and 25 cents for the good quality grades when things get settled."

Disadvantages pointed out by Mr. Williams, which would be avoided if curtailment of future crops, rather than a cutout of the 1921 crop was practiced, were hardships on tenants and embarrassed owners, the dislocation of the industry and partial loss of markets. The liability of high prices following a cutout, thereby resulting in another period of over production and low prices and necessity for another cutout, thus making another necessary and leading to the danger of violence and disregard for law was a serious price to pay and justified only by "critical necessity," he said.

"Whether a cutout or curtailment is practiced, a strong organization is valuable in either case," said Mr. Williams. "If there is a cutout without serious trouble, it must be nearly unanimous, not by two-thirds vote. If there is curtailment of acreage, it should be concerted, proportional and assured in order to affect prices."

Holding the poorer grades until their markets revive and the support of such projects as the War Finance Corporation, which may enable European peoples to get the needed credits for buying our products were pointed out by Mr. Williams as two useful things which might be profitably practiced in the present situation.

"General intelligence is the ultimate remedy for violent fluctuations," he stated.

In speaking of the present low prices, the speaker continued: "The first condition of resumed prosperity, is for prices to settle down at a balanced level, that is, with all classes of products reduced proportionately. Those who attempt to keep their prices up to avoid loss on high costs of present stocks are retarding the stabilizing process, thereby hurting society and themselves."

"Whether the present price of tobacco is too low does not depend on the costs of the present stock but upon the probable costs of future supplies. If the present price is below these, growers are logically and socially justified in curtailing the supply to bring prices to the probable level of future supplies. It is useless to try to keep them above this level, because a surplus will be left if the price is higher than the demand justifies."

"If a limitation of supply to gain high prices could be realized by all classes, it would leave each in the relative position, that is, keeping the cost of living high for all—a vicious circle."

In speaking of the farm conditions in general, Mr. Williams stated that a Society of Nations to secure stability and increase production "over there" would apparently be far more useful than embargoes and tariffs. He pointed out that the proposed tariff to help farmers would not be of any service for wheat and meat products and would help wool and butter only temporarily.

In concluding, Mr. Williams said, "It is fairly probable that prices in general are at about a permanent level. Some are too low apparently and will come back. Others, particularly retailers' stocks and some labor, must come down to a fair relation with those already down. I look for this to come about soon."

Baby Pitched From One Car to Another in Crash

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—When the Michael Blidariu was in collision with another machine, Rosa Blidariu, infant, seated in her mother's lap, was hurled through the air and landed in the other car. She was laughing when the other car stopped skidding and she could be handed back to her agonized mother.

SOIL HELPS TREES

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Feb. 2.—While it is true that spraying is the most important single operation in the orchard, yet trees are vigorous and productive largely in proportion to the soil treatment which they receive. J. H. Gourley, of Morgantown, W. Va. told persons attending the meeting of the Kentucky Horticultural Society meeting here today in connection with the annual "Farm and Home" convention at the State College of Agriculture. Other problems of orchard management, including spraying, fertilizing and pruning were discussed by Mr. Gourley. The importance of standard grade fruit well packed, was emphasized in the speaker's conclusions.

LOWER FARES IN TOLEDO

Toledo, O., Feb. 1.—Toledo street car riders began today to ride for six cents. For more than a year the fare has been paying seven cents straight fare, three rides for twenty cents with two cents added in each instance where a transfer was required. A transfer under the new grant will be one cent.

TWO HUNDRED ACCIDENTS IN MINES DURING MONTH

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 2.—There were approximately 200 accidents, two of them fatal, in Bell and Harlan county coal mines during the month of January, according to C. T. Dodson, an official of a casualty company, the local office of which gathers statistics for these two counties. This number was reported in spite of the fact that few mines, other than those owned in interests which consume the output of their own properties, were in operation full time. There are 70 coal mines in Harlan county and 76 in Bell county.

SLAYER PARDONED BECAUSE HE PROTECTED HIS WIFE

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—Thos. Noe, Harlan county, sent up for five years last May, was pardoned by the Governor on the ground that he had slain the man he was accused of having murdered in protecting his wife.

BARN BURNED BY SPARKS FROM NEW TOBACCO BED

Murray, Ky., Feb. 2.—Sparks from brush with which Jim Mayfield was burning a plant bed for a new tobacco crop, destroyed his tobacco barn which contained his last year's crop.

MONSTER HOG BUTCHERED BY GRAVES COUNTY FARMER

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 2.—The largest hog ever killed in this county, was butchered by John Turnbow, of Farmington. It weighed 980 pounds, measured six and a half feet in circumference, and was eight feet long.

Block Coal $9 per ton delivered in city; $8 at yard. L. O. Powers, phone 180. 11

Early retailers' stocks and some labor, must come down to a fair relation with those already down. I look for this to come about soon."

Weather For Kentucky

Fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature.

Today's Livestock Markets

Cincinnati, Feb. 2.—Cattle slow; steers lower; hogs steady; Chicago 38 000; steady.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Cattle 100; slow; hogs 1200; strong; sheep 50; steady; all unchanged.

FORMER RICHMOND BOY LANDS GOOD JOB

Mr. E. A. Deiss, a nephew of Hon. J. A. Sullivan, of this city, has been made manager of the Lafayette-Phoenix Garage, Lexington, and succeeds Mr. Fred Bryant, according to a report in the Lexington papers Tuesday. Mr. Deiss has been connected with the Mason and Hanger Company for some time, but is now in Lexington, and will assume his new duties at once. Mr. Deiss has a large number of friends in Richmond, having been a student in the Model School several years ago, who will be glad to know of his good luck in securing this splendid position.

LIBERAL COLLECTION FOR RELIEF WORK

A splendid audience greeted Miss Crane at the First Christian church Sunday evening in a union service, to hear of the condition prevailing in the Near East. Miss Crane, who was at the head of an orphanage in Syria, the past year, told in a very plaintive way the needs of thousands of orphans caused by the ravages of war. Miss Crane has been making a tour of this country, speaking in the interest of the Armenian relief, and it was through the invitation of Miss Curran Smith, who is at the head of the work in Madison county, that she was secured for an address here. At the conclusion of her remarks liberal collection amounting to $162 was taken for the work.

LOCAL GIRL STARS

It will be of interest to many friends here to know that Miss Kathryn Smith, of Richmond, had the lead in the musical comedy, Katcha-Koo, given in Maysville, January 26 and 27. This play was given under the auspices of the American Legion and was quite a success. Miss Smith in taking the lead, upheld her usual record of doing things well, and the Legion is to be congratulated upon having her for this part.

CARLOAD OF HORSES TO BE IN RICHMOND MONDAY

Col. Bob Walker has received word from Mr. Thomas Delay, of Frankfort, Ohio, that he will ship to Richmond the last of this week a carload of horses and mules. All of them are well broke and good ones. If you need a team of good mules or a good horse don't fail to see this load. Every horse and mule sold will be as represented. Mr. Delay is no stranger here, or in other towns of the Blue Grass, as he has sold stock in most all of the towns in this state.

ACCEPTS POSITION AT STOCKTON'S DRUG STORE

Mr. Murrell Reid, of Hustonville, arrived in Richmond Monday to assume duties in the clerical department at Stockton's Drug Store. Mr. Reid comes very highly recommended and will prove a valuable addition to the force at this popular drug store.

Loss Moving Whisky

Near 2,000,000 Gallons

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Distillers have entered protest against the proposal to concentrate here 26,000,000 gallons of whisky in bonded warehouses in Kentucky, holding that there would be a loss of three gallons on each of the 600,000 barrels. Collector Hamilton estimates the loss to be expected at only two quarts per barrel. The upper staves of barrels in ricks become dry and porous. When moved these staves drink up a surprising quantity of contents.

Infection of Toe May Cause Editor's Death

Princeton, Ky., Feb. 2.—George Catlett, editor of the Princeton Leader, was moved to a Hopkinsville hospital in a critical condition from blood poisoning, which originated in an abrasion on his toe a week ago.

On Way to See Mother, Found Dead on Track

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Allen D. Campbell, 23, Yale graduate, employed by a local corporation, left Louisville to visit his mother in New York. A dispatch states that his body was found beside railroad tracks near Harrisburg, Pa., and the belief there was that he had fallen from a train.

L. & N. to Lay Off 2,500 Men This Week

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Effective Wednesday, the L. & N. railroad is to lay off 2,500 men in the mechanical department of the system. The retrenchment is based on decreased business. A notice reads that other departments have been directed to make such curtailments as are possible.

"Mole" Morris Exonerated

Friends here of "Mole" Morris, a former Madison county man, were glad to read the following about him in a recent issue of a Dayton, Ohio, paper:

True to the promise made to Prosecuting Attorney H. E. Mau, by his lawyer, H. H. Evans, of Indianapolis, J. M. "Mole" Morris, ought by Montgomery county officials for alleged implication in the killing of Ben Gay, Miami township farmer, arrived in Dayton ready to surrender if the grand jury returned an indictment against him in the killing.

But Morris learned when he got here that the grand jury had ignored the case, apparently believing that Morris, as he claimed, had shot Gay in self-defense.

He has been staying in Cincinnati, pending healing of injuries he claims he received when Gay attacked him.

SOUGHT DYNAMITE TO DIG WELL AND WAS WOUNDED

Ashland, Ky., Feb. 2.—David Fraley was digging a well and needed an explosive, police say. Wm. Closs, detective, believed he was trying to break into the powder magazine and fired. Fraley is in the hospital with a bullet in his hip.

PERSHING WARNS AGAINST PACIFISM

General Says Conflict Between England and United States is Inconceivable

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 2.—General John J. Pershing, discussing world disarmament, warned the house naval committee today against pacifism and unpreparedness, while expressing approval of the world disarmament conference. He said the United States should go ahead with the present army and navy program until definite agreement is reached by at least five of the great world powers. "I think I am in position to know what unpreparedness meant at the beginning of the war," he said.

General Pershing said war between Great Britain and the United States is not conceivable, and did not believe Germany wanted another war. "We all know," he added, "America has no designs on other countries, but other nations may not believe that."

BENEFIT SHOW NETS NEAT SUM SATURDAY

The patrons of the local movie shows contributed liberally to the starving children of the Orient last Saturday, when a special matinee conducted by Miss Anna Bell Ward, local manager of the Phoenix Amusement Company, gave the entire proceeds to this worthy cause. Owing to the inclemency of the weather Saturday, not as large a crowd as might have turned out under more favorable weather conditions, was present, but the children of the town worked faithfully in selling tickets, and the box office receipts showed that $55.10 was derived from the morning show.

Miss Ward stated that the theatre receipts for the benefit show at Paris amounted to $150, and that the entire receipts taken in from all their theatres approximately amounted to $550. The theatres throughout the country raised quite a large sum for the Armenian Relief Fund, and the movie managers as well as the stars who donated their services in the releases used for the special benefit shows, are to be commended.

LOCAL MERCHANT STARTS BIG SALE

Mr. J. S. Stanifer, one of Richmond's wide-awake merchants, has started the ball rolling in this city by announcing in a large page advertisement which appears in today's paper the greatest clothing sale ever conducted here. His entire stock has been thrown into the sale, and pre-war prices are prevailing in every department. Mr. Stanifer says prices are being dropped in all lines, and while his present stock was bought at a high figure, he is going to be the first to take his medicine like a man and let it go even at a big loss. The sale starts Thursday, February 3.

LOOKS LIKE AN EARLY SPRING

The weather conditions for the famous ground hog day started off very encouraging Wednesday. There seemed no chance of Old Sol making his appearance, and the chances for the animal prophet to get a glimpse of his shadow were very slim. If the cloudy weather continues throughout the day, it means that winter has been broken and that spring in all its glory will be ushered in six weeks earlier. However, it all depends upon the ground hog.

DISASTROUS FIRE SATURDAY

The residence of Mr. Julian Maupin on the Irvine road, was entirely destroyed by fire Saturday. The building and furnishings was a total loss as well as the clothing for the family, as he carried no insurance. It is not known how the fire originated.

MR. KENNEDY ILL

Mr. Warren Kennedy is reported critically ill at his home on Smith-Ballard st. Two or three physicians have been called in attendance, and so far have been unable to diagnose his case. His condition is considered alarming.

LEXINGTON PIKE WORK WILL BEGIN AT ONCE

Engineer Johnson Arrives Thursday Morning to Survey Road—Greenleaf Gives Service

Within two hours after the vote ratifying the proposal to improve the Lexington pike by the fiscal court, a telegram was received by J. G. Baxter, county engineer, from J. S. Boggs, state highway engineer, saying that Mr. J. E. Johnson, of the engineering and surveying corps of the state highway department, would report at the court house at Richmond Thursday morning to begin the survey of the road. He will be accompanied by a full field party and no time will be lost in preparing the plans for the letting of a contract which is scheduled for about May 1.

Judge J. J. Greenleaf has voluntarily offered his services to the county in looking after the necessary legal details, and this will probably be the only donation on the proposed work. He states he is very much interested in the improvement of this road personally and otherwise and is entirely willing to give his services gratis.

TETRAZZINI COMING TO LEXINGTON FEB. 7

Luisa Tetrazzini, who will appear in Lexington in concert at Woodland Auditorium, Monday, February 7, will be assisted in her program by Francesco Longo, pianist; Max Gagna, cellist, and J. Henri Bove, flutist. This group of artists has been received by the American public with general acclaim. Each one contributes to the entertainment in some distinctive way as soloist, in duet or trio and accompanist, selecting for contribution a number of the composers. Verdi, Boellman, David, Leignac, Chopin, Popper and Donizetti.

The difference between one coloratura's voice quality and that of another is frequently as readily understood as that of singers of different registers. Tetrazzini, for instance, has more glint and color in those marvelously high notes than many coloraturas. In addition she has a range entirely beyond the necessity of her style. Intimate trills, roulades, pipings come as easily to her as the simple ballads with less gifted singers. Her notes are called "golden." Critics describe her singing as perfect when they approve the well rounded high notes, with thrill after thrill as she loops the vocal loops. Each number given has meant an ovation for her and her accompanists. These are the reasons that her concerts are such pronounced successes wherever she appears.

Seats may be reserved by writing to the Lexington College of Music, Anna Chandler Goff, director. Wednesday, February 2, the box office seat sale at the Ben Ali theater, Lexington, will open.

FIREMEN RESCUE CRIPPLE FROM NEWPORT DWELLING

Newport, Ky., Feb. 2.—Two families were routed from their homes when fire, believed to have been caused by a defective flue, for a time threatened the two story frame building at 216 West Eighth street. Edith Schuster 18 years old, a cripple, was carried by firemen to a neighbor's house for shelter.

DISTILLATION FOR WATER CONDEMNED BY THE STATE

Maysville, Ky., Feb. 2.—A still will be installed in the high school for the distillation of water used by pupils. Seventeen indictments recently have been sworn out by the State Board of Health charging the local company with furnishing water unfit for drinking purposes.

Eastern Apples

The conspicuous success of western apple-growers, which at first seemed to discourage farmers east of the Mississippi from doing anything more in the horticultural line, is now bringing about a reaction. There is a marked increase of interest shown throughout New England with respect to fruit trees, and especially apple trees. Many old, long neglected orchards are being renovated and, after two or three years of careful trimming, spraying, cultivating and cavity-filling, are found to produce fruit of a surprisingly good quality.

There has been an instructive development along this line in Ohio, under the guidance of the state agricultural experiment station at Wooster.

ter. Back in 1903, when many Ohio farmers were going west to engage in see whether their own state was really so inferior for apple-raising as the farmers imagined. They selected a large number of representative orchards in scattered sections and subjected them to a long course of experiments, applying all the scientific methods that are used as a matter of course in Colorado and the Pacific Coast states.

Their own efforts and those of the farmers who followed their instructions, have produced gratifying results. The Wooster station reports that instead of only an occasional professional orchardist here and there obtaining fancy crops, as was the case 10 or 15 years ago, there are now whole neighborhoods that are producing large fruit crops of excellent quality.

The ten-year records of the orchards under special observation show an average return of 234 bushels of apples to the acre, and a gross income of nearly $200 to the acre. The cost of production is said to be about 40 per cent, which leaves an average of net income of $120 an acre—something surely not to be despised by any farmer, however prejudiced he may be in favor of grain crops. The volume of production and also the income from it have naturally increased so much toward the end of this decade that they are far higher than the averages given.

Lower
Farm Implement Prices

The break has come. For some time prices paid for your farm products have been low. It is but natural for you to want lower prices on the farm implements used in producing your crops

Announcement is made by the Oliver Chilled Plow Works of a general price reduction in their lines that brings prices to the basis of 1918. They are the first to make this reduction and are taking the loss that the move brings—for there has been little reduction in labor or material---as their contribution in hastening a return to normal conditions.

This is your opportunity to secure new, up-to-date Oliver quality implements that will help you produce a full crop, and get them at a price in line with the reduced prices on your farm products.

Miss Martha Pierce, who has been the attractive guest of Mrs. R. A. Edwards, on South Second street, left Wednesday for her home in Bedford, Kentucky.

Mrs. Emma Monday and Miss Sara Monday have returned from Frankfort where they were called by the death of the former's mother.

Miss Cynthia Prewitt, of the Paint Lick section, who recently submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Robinson Hospital, Berea, is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Jennings Greenleaf is visiting her sister, Mrs. Field White, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards were in Paint Lick Thursday for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watson were with friends in Stanford Sunday.

Mr. John Martin, of Ravenna, is with his parents in Stanford for a visit.

Mr. W. B. Turley, of Richmond, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. R. T. Bruce, and Mr. Bruce, "Brother" as his many friends know him, will be the republican nominee for county clerk of Madison unless there is a break in the arrangements of that party. There is no cleverer man top of dirt than "Brother," and were he a democrat, as he should be, the I. J. would deaden over the line and work for him teeth and toe nail. Madison is an uncertain and pivotal county, and unless the democrats bestir themselves, Mr. Turley may give them a fooling.—Stanford Journal.

Mrs. S. L. Gattrell and children of Midway, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashcraft, and son, of Lexington, Mrs. C. B. Gaines, and Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Witt, and family of Versailles, were here to attend the funeral of Clifford Gaines, Wednesday.

Mrs. J. K. Merritt and son were shopping in Berea Tuesday.

Mr. Jonah Wagers is improving and is able to walk around in his room his friends will be glad to know.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tracy, of Hazard, Ky., Mr. George Tracy, and daughter, Poria, of Winchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton Tracy, of Doyleville, were in Richmond Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Andrew J. Tracy.

Mr. Charles Spillman, of Harrodsburg, who has been attending the Eastern Normal, has entered Centre College, Danville.

The Daily Register's valuable correspondent at Paint Lick, Mr. H. L. Wallace, has been quite ill for several days. His host of friends hope to see him out soon.

Reports from the bedside of Mr. Conley Conleton, Wednesday morning were not encouraging and relatives and friends are apprehensive about him.

Late reports as to the condition of Mrs. Mary B. Clay from the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary, give encouraging news that she is getting along nicely.

IN THE MOVIES

"The Poor Simp"—Owen Moore
One of the unusual phases of the making of the new Selznick production, "The Poor Simp" featuring Owen Moore, was a rather unique street parade in Los Angeles, and in which Mr. Moore was the central figure. The parade consisted of a large truck towing a limousine which, in turn, towed another truck carrying a power generator that supplied current to the powerful spotlights focused on the occupant of the limousine, Mr. Moore. See "The Poor Simp" at the Opera House tonight.

Newspapers A Gold Mine
Fred Stovers, the eminent screen author who wrote the continuity for J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brunton production, "The Coast of Opportunity," released by W. W. Hodkinson and to be shown at the local theatres on Thursday, derives some of its best ideas from the daily newspapers.

"The daily newspapers are a genuine gold mine of plots and dramatic situations," said Stovers recently. "Every column pulses with present day life, human incidents, color, action. Every emotion that sways mankind—love, hate, revenge, ambition—finds an outpouring in newspaper print."

Clyde Fitch, one of the greatest of American dramatists, never wrote a more successful comedy than "The Truth," which appeared for a record run with the famous actress, Clara Bloodgood, in the leading role. "The Truth" is still held up today as a comedy model for the young playwrighting idea to shoot at. It is the story of a young wife, who had inherited gift of telling artistic lies from a rakish scapegrace of a father. Her indulgent husband does his best to show her the ultimate advantages of telling the truth, but the naive Becky finds fibbing easier, and much more exciting. To be shown at the local theatres Friday.

Mrs. E. C. Stockton is spending several days with Lexington friends.

Health of Women

How many perfectly well women do you know? Isn't it true that in order to keep up with the march of progress the endurance of woman is often strained to its utmost, and the tax upon her physical system is in many cases greater than she can stand. Headaches develop, and nervous irritability, backache, dragging down sensations and other painful ailments peculiar to women. The reliable remedy when a woman gets into such a condition is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as for nearly half a century it has proved the natural restorative for these troubles.

Notice--Motor Truck Owners

FEELS LIKE HE OUGHT TO TELL EVERYBODY

North Carolina Salesman Says There's No Getting Around the Fact That Tanlac is Simply Grand

"I never thought I would let my name be used in connection with a medicine, but Tanlac has done me so much good I feel like I ought to tell everybody about it," said Frank Moore, 204 Henshaw Ave., Winston-Salem, N. C., well-known salesman for the Eastern Rubber Co., recently.

"For some time I had been all out of sorts, not exactly sick, but not feeling at all right. I felt tired all the time and didn't seem to have a particle of energy. I had no appetite and what little I forced down soured on my stomach. After meals the gas on my stomach would bloat me until I could hardly breathe and I had very distressing pains in my stomach.

"My sleep was very broken. Nights I just rolled and tossed from one side of the bed to the other, scarcely closing my eyes, and then got up with a sickening taste in my mouth and feeling all tired out. I lost a lot of weight and, in fact, got in that miserable condition when one is not sick enough to quit work and yet does not feel equal to the daily task.

"Well, I worried along this way for several months, getting worse all the time, until I finally decided to try Tanlac and it helped me almost from the start. I have taken three bottles now and am eating and digesting my food fine. Everything agrees with me so well I have already gained about ten pounds in weight and all my strength has come back to me.

"Nights I sleep like a log, seldom wake up to turn over once before morning and when I get up I am ready for a hearty breakfast and a big day's work. Tanlac is simply great, there's no getting around that fact."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton & Son at Berea and Welch Department Store, and at College Hill by Ginter Bros.

MT. STERLING WCTU GOES AFTER 'SHINERS

(By Associated Press)
Mt. Sterling, Ky., Feb. 2.—The business of moonshining and selling intoxicating liquor in Montgomery county must be stopped, according to officials of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city, who have announced that the organization will pay a reward for the arrest and conviction of persons engaged in the business. The organization at a recent meeting voted to pay $25 reward for the conviction of each moonshiner captured in the county; $25 for bootleggers; $25 for convictions for having moonshine liquor in the possession of any person and $5 for convictions for drunkenness.

The rewards offered by the organization are in addition to the $50 permanent reward offered by the state for the arrest and conviction of moonshiners or information leading to the arrest and conviction. They are payable, however, only to persons other than officers of the law sworn to enforce the liquor laws.

DECLARES ROOSTER IS HALF THE FLOCK

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Feb. 2.—Maintaining that the male bird was at least one-half of the poultry flock, J. H. Martin, in charge of poultry work of the State College of Agriculture, emphasized in his lecture on "A Breeding Program for Farm Poultry" here today before farmer attending the ninth annual "Farm and Home" convention, that the farmer should secure male birds from high-producing strains if they wished to establish high egg producing flocks on their farms.

Mr. Martin stated that experiments have shown that the selection of females alone on the basis of their egg production even though continued thru a long period of years had failed completely to produce any steady increase in the average egg production.

Continuing, he said, "It seems quite clear that both the sire and dam play an important part in determining the egg production of the pullets. There is sufficient data to substantiate the conclusion that it is equally important to select a male bird from a high-producing strain as to select a female for high egg production in the process of building up the laying flock."

Mr. Martin also explained inbreeding, constitutional vigor, early maturity and varietal characteristics to the farmers interested in poultry.

Naval Building Program Looks Big to Committee

Washington, Feb. 2.—Nearly half a billion dollars will be required to complete the great naval building program of 1916, the house appropriations committee estimated today reporting the annual naval appropriation bill. Half a billion has already been appropriated. The 1916 program authorized 156 ships. Many have been completed, but 17 battleships, battle cruisers and auxiliaries are still under construction.

PURE-BRED BEEF HAS GREATER PROFIT

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 2.—John Gosling, of Kansas City, Mo., a beef cattle specialist, today demonstrated to members of the Kentucky Beef Cattle Breeders' Association, in annual session here, the difference between beef produced from a pure-bred steer and that from a scrub. The animals were first judged by Mr. Gosling, who in a lecture pointed out their various points. They then were slaughtered and after the carcasses were dressed he showed to the farmers their differences in conformation.

Mr. Gosling in his lecture told the farmers that by producing the pure-bred animal they would realize greater and more uniform profit from their work.

He also discussed the production of veal and mutton as contrasted to the fattening of steers and lambs.

STARVING CHINKS NEED HELP

From every pulpit in Kentucky, an appeal will be made Sunday, February 6th, for funds to save the inhabitants of those great Chinese provinces where the crop failure is complete and 40,000,000 persons face starvation. The Rev. Dr. E. Y. Mullins, chairman of the China Famine Fund in Kentucky, has received replies from the ministers of all denominations in the state indicating that the answer to his appeal for the observance of Sunday, February 6th, as China Relief Sunday, will be nearly 100 per cent.

HARD ON THE POETS

"I'M SCHEDULED to recite 'Anna-bel Lee' at an entertainment to-night," confessed the retired merchant. "I've been repeating the poem to myself almost constantly for several days, and know every comma in it, but I'm afraid that when I stand up to recite, I'll have forgotten every word of it."

"I hope so," said the hotelkeeper. "Such a poem as 'Anna-bel Lee' deserves better treatment than you are qualified to give it. You have a voice like a guinea hen, and you telescope your words, and you don't know any more about poetry than a porcupine knows about Paradise. If you'd stand up and recite a few pages from a mail-order catalogue I have no doubt you'd put the proper feeling into it, and move your audience to tears, but it's a crime for a man like you to mangle a beautiful poem, full of sentiment and melody."

"There ought to be a law against that sort of thing. Some of the best poems in the country have been ruined by common or garden elocutionists. Nowadays people smile when you mention 'Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight.' It has been recited so much by people with cracked voices that it has become a joke. Yet if you examine the poem calmly and impartially you will find that it has a great deal of merit."

"In the schools the pupils are permitted to recite some of our best poems, and the poems aren't fit for anything after it. The school authorities should prohibit this sort of thing, and prepare a volume of cheap asbestos poetry that is fool proof, that can't be injured, no matter what you do to it. There is plenty of punk poetry in the world, and a collection of this stuff would serve the schoolboy elocutionists just as well as the high class poetry that is so easily spoiled."

"When I went to school, about a hundred years ago, there was a tall, freckled, gangling boy, who talked through his nose, with a sort of whine that sounded like filing a saw. There was to be a school entertainment, and this boy was down for a recitation. The teacher never asked him what he was going to recite, but gave him the right of way. Teachers continue to make the same mistake, even as we go to press. They should choose the poems which are to be butchered to make a Roman holiday and select something that won't rip, ravel or run down at the heel."

"This boy stood up before the school and droned through Gray's 'Elegy.' Now, that's one of the best rhymes ever composed. It was written by a journeyman poet who put in seven years at it. In the time when they had ten-hour days. He wanted to leave behind him a poem that would stand the severest tests of the government inspectors, and he did. In my opinion there is nothing better in any language. It is rather melancholy, but it has a sort of doggone soothing quality that is a balm to the bruised spirit of a landlord when he finds that the receipts of his hotel don't equal the expenses."

"Time and again, when discouraged and played out, I have started to read that poem, and as soon as I get fairly into it, I seem to see that blamed gangling schoolboy, in his high-water garments, and hear him droning through those verses, making a noise like a sawmill on a wet day. It's more than forty years since he made a violent assault upon the Elegy, but it seems like yesterday. It's the same way with Hamlet's 'Soliloquy.' Every time I hear or see that gem I think of a fat youth who recited it in our school, and then I burst into tears."

"There's no sense in such a business, and congress ought to do something, doggone it."

TOBACCO MARKET WEAKER TUESDAY

Tobacco prices on the Richmond market Tuesday were just a little bit weaker than Monday's average, due to the poorer quality of tobacco on the floors, but prices are expected to pick up with the better crops which have been steadily pouring into both houses since Monday. In some of the sales reported yesterday, where the buyers found good baskets among the long string of rows, spirited bidding prevailed, and several baskets brought as high as 50 cents a pound. Following are some basket sales reported Tuesday:

J. S. Wildes sold: 165 at $5.70; 125 at $6.25; 215 at $12.25; 345 at $8; 95 at $3; 55 at $3.

Brandenburg and White sold: 180 at $2.10; 235 at $5.10; 115 at $3.90; 210 at $2; 245 at $4.10; 195 at $4.30; 305 at $10; 310 at $14.25; 255 at $13; 195 at $7; 230 at $7; 230 at $7.75; 225 at $5; 255 at $7.50; 230 at $7.25; 235 at $5; 200 at $5.20; 200 at $4; 280 at $4.10; 145 at $4; 245 at $1.

Matty and J. Jones sold: 184 at $9; 175 at $29; 80 at $30; 180 at $34; 185 at $31; 280 at $24; 230 at $8.50.

M. A. Watkins sold: 45 at $1; 45 at $5; 55 at $10; 120 at $4.

Bennett and Howard sold: 85 at 50c; 260 at 50c; 190 at $1.10; 175 at $1.10; 120 at $5.

J. L. Watkins sold: 200 at $2; 75 at $6; 120 at $7.75; 165 at $21; 110 at $4.10; 445 at $9.25.

SHE WASN'T SICK, BUT HER CHILDREN WERE

Six Months of Worry and Care
Too Much For Her

GOT THIN, NERVOUS, TIRED

Her Brother-in-Law, a Doctor
Said She Was Anemic, and Advised Pepto-Mangan

Here is a story of a strong, vigorous mother who never knew what ill-health was. But three years ago her two little boys got into the habit of being sick.

Six months of care and worry were too much for her and brought to light the fact, that, with all her apparent vigor, she really was anemic. She lost flesh, couldn't sleep and got nervous.

Then the doctor (her brother-in-law) prescribed Pepto-Mangan.

She said: "Fred explained a lot about the special sort of iron-content in Pepto-Mangan, and a lot of other things that I don't understand, but what I understand is that a bottle of Pepto-Mangan is always going to be in my medicine closet as long as I live. Whatever it contains, I don't know or care, but I do know that it builds me up when I get run down, and that's enough for me."

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition to those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order be sure the word Gude's is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.
